Nathan Ochsner, Clerk

IN RE:

§

§

CASE NO: 23-645

§

Professional Fee Matters Concerning the Jackson Walker Law Firm

ORDER

On April 9, 2025, Chief United States District Judge Alia Moses issued her Memorandum Opinion and Order¹ (the “Order”) adopting in part and rejecting in part this Court’s Report and Recommendation² withdrawing the reference in each of the 34 bankruptcy cases.³ The Order further stated that “All orders entered in these cases thus far, including those concerning discovery, STAND unless and until this Court, or a court to which this Court later refers or reassigns a particular matter, orders otherwise”.⁴

Pursuant to this Court’s Amended Comprehensive Scheduling, Pre-Trial & Trial Order⁵, Parties to this proceeding are currently scheduled to submit a joint pre-trial order by Friday April 25, 2026, and a final pre-trial conference is currently scheduled for Tuesday April 29, 2025.⁶ Finally, an in person trial is scheduled to commence before this court on Monday May 12, 2025 in Houston, Texas.⁷ Therefore, this Court deems it appropriate to issue the instant order. Accordingly, it is therefore

ORDERED: that

1. All deadlines contained within this Court’s Amended Comprehensive Scheduling, Pre-Trial & Trial Order⁸ are ABATED pending further orders of this Court.
2. The trial currently scheduled to commence on May 12, 2025 is CANCELLED.
3. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.
